(www.WCCCSA.com)

Faculty Application Information

WCCCSA seeks enthusiastic and creative faculty who can demonstrate a history of effectiveness in their instructional discipline and the ability to successfully forward student participation and academic progress. Interested instructors need strong interpersonal communication skills and a keen awareness of the realities of providing instruction to US community college students overseas. A strong foundation in intercultural awareness/communication, student development, and cross-cultural adjustment is required to teach on a WCCCSA program.

Faculty applicants are evaluated on the following criteria:

1. Relevance of the proposed course to its respective environment
2. Applicability of proposed courses to general education distribution requirements
3. Record of college-level teaching excellence with proposed or similar courses
4. Previous international education experience and student service experience
5. Record of collegial cooperation and interdisciplinary instruction

To apply to teach on a WCCCSA program, please complete the application form and submit all supporting documents.

APPLICATION DEADLINES*:

- March 15, 2010 Spring Quarter, 2011 Florence, Italy
Interviews are expected to be held in April, 2010.
- May 15, 2010 Fall Quarter, 2011 Capetown, South Africa
Interviews are expected to be held in June, 2010

*Note: Complete applications must be received in the office on this date. Only complete applications will be considered. Once submitted, applications cannot be changed or amended for reconsideration.*
